All The Light We Cannot See
by Anthony Doerr

Greater Gorham Farmers Market Opening May 2nd 8:30am to 12:30pm

We look forward to welcoming back the Greater Gorham Farmers Market!

Located on Route 114 between the library and Gorham Times.
Open every Saturday 8:30am –
12:30pm May thru October.

Have you applied for (and picked up) your NEW library card? --
Time is running out on the "old" cards!

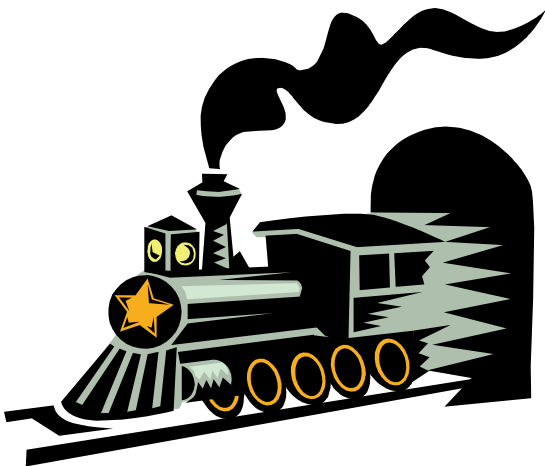

Please apply for and pick up your new library card by June 1st. It is easy to start the process from any internet ready computer by going to our website at www.baxterlibrary.org. Then all you need to do is come to the library, sign your application and get your new library card. PLEASE do this by June 1st. If you have any questions on this process, please ask at the library or contact us at 222-1190.

PLEASE NOTE: We will begin deleting "old" library cards on July 1st, 2015 and any reserves on those cards may be lost.

Train Days

Friday, May 15th from 10am – 4pm
Saturday, May 16th from 9am - 11am

View model trains displayed by the Maine 3-Railers - Maine's premier O-Gauge Railroad Club. Stop by Youth Services to see the display, take a turn at the controls, and make train crafts. All ages. No registration required.
